Adopt a Plan

A definite plan is the foundation of success in saving.

It doesn't make much difference what the plan of saving is, so long as it's systematic. Some people never spend the dimes they get—they put them in a convenient home savings bank.

Some men shave themselves and drop into the bank the money they would have to pay the barber. Others walk to the office and save the carfare.

You can select any plan which suits you. Regularity in your saving is the essential thing.

One dollar opens an account and starts your savings earning interest. BEGIN NOW.

THANKSGIVING IN ALASKA.

Governor Walter E. Clark Issues Annual Proclamation.

Governor Walter E. Clark of Alaska has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation, which is of interest to his Windham county friends:

DISTRICT OF ALASKA.

By the Governor

A PROCLAMATION.

In conformity with a proclamation of the president of the United States, and in recognition of the wise and honored custom observed by our people since the early days of our history, I Walter E. Clark, governor of the district of Alaska, do hereby appoint Thursday, the thirtieth day of November, nineteen hundred and eleven, a day of

THANKSGIVING.

And I recommend that upon that day all the people of Alaska suspend their usual occupations and labors, and while so doing give thanks to Him who is the Giver of all bounty and the Author of all blessings which humanity enjoys. While praying and striving for a betterment of our material condition and the proper means of encouraging our territory's development, let us be devoutly grateful for the fruits of labor during the last year, for the abundance of natural resources, for the freedom from famine and epidemics of disease, and for the industrial peace which have been vouchsafed to us. While thus extending thanks for the benefits which have come to our people as a whole, let the helping hand be extended to the unfortunate and needy.

Given under my hand and the seal of the district of Alaska, in Juneau, the capital, this sixth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty-sixth.

WALTER E. CLARK.

By the Governor:
WILLIAM L. DISTIN,
Ex-officio Secretary of Alaska.

CREDITORS PROTEST.

Fifty Object to Ernest M. Arnold Being Adjudged a Bankrupt.

Fifty creditors through counsel yesterday filed with Referee in Bankruptcy A. J. Bowen protests against the petition of Ernest M. Arnold, a former Putnam broker, who is asking to be adjudged bankrupt. Arnold failed about a year ago and at that time his liabilities were estimated at $100,000.
Referee Bowen gave the creditors' counsel ten days in which to file specifications of objections, and stated that he would after the filing of the specifications allow counsel for Arnold ten days in which to answer. The hearing for the disposition of the case is set for Dec. 11.

SELECTMEN MEET.

Receive One Bid for Drain and Fence on South Windham-Franklin Highway.

The board of selectmen held a special meeting Monday afternoon to talk over the proposition of having the drain built and a fence along the new stretch of state road between South Windham and Franklin that was recommended or ordered by the highway commissioner.

But one bid for doing the work was submitted, and that by B. N. Board & company, the contracting firm who is building the road, whose figures were $1 per lineal foot for the drain and 50 cents per lineal foot for the fence.
There is approximately 600 feet of drain and 1,500 feet of fence to be constructed. No definite action was taken on the bid. The board will go over the ground today (Tuesday) with the contractor to ascertain just what the conditions are.

The matter of the trunk officer and that of the personal tax enumerator did not come up for action at the meeting Monday, but will be considered.

Delicious Gingerbread

(Recipe by Mrs. Mary J. Lincoln) Children are great lovers of gingerbread, and grown folks, too, if it is the rich, "melt-in-your-mouth" kind. Here is something the children can eat freely without fear of "tummy-ache":

Mix two cups flour, one-half level teaspoon salt, one level teaspoon soda, one level tablespoon butter, stir in one cup molasses, two tablespoons softened Cottolene and one-half cup boiling water.
Bake in shallow pan. If for dessert, bake in layers. Fill with whipped cream, flavored with lemon.

Cottolene makes light, rich pastry that digests with ease.

tendants.

There was special music during the celebration of the mass. Miss Blanche Archambeault, a sister of the bride, sang "O This Happy Day," and D. P.
Comtois rendering "Venit, Creator." After the ceremony there was a reception Archambeault, 54 Broad street, at which some thirty guests were present.

upon their return will make their home in this city.

Smith-Clark.

Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock William E. Smith, formerly of Bridgeport, now of this city, and Miss Ethel A.
Clark of this city were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Clark, 376 Pleasant street. Rev. William S. Beard, pastor of the First Congregational church, performed the ceremony, beneath an arch of evergreen and roses in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bride's gown was white silk, trimmed with headed lace. She carried white roses. Miss Mabel Clark, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of pink and white silk and carried pink roses. Harry Clark was best man.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony and then Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a short honeymoon.
Upon their return they will make their home in this city. The bride received many handsome and useful gifts.

WANTS BIG ORGIFT.

Prof. Jarvis Would Like One at New Epileptic Colony.

Monday morning Dr. W. L. Higgins of South Coventry, secretary of the board of directors of the Connecticut colony for epileptics at Mansfield, went to Springfield to attend a meeting of the committee on furnishings. The members of this committee in addition to Dr. Higgins are E. H. Deming of Farmington and W. J. Barber of Har-winton. Dr. D. L. Ross, superintendent of the colony, was also present. One of the matters taken up was the plan to take effect after the holidays. He would like to establish a ten acre orchard and wants personal supervision of the free of charge. He wants to have a fine orchard, one that he may take his classes in order to demonstrate the actual of penology. Under his plan the colony would in time have an orchard that would prove a paying proposition as well as affording the opportunity for demonstrative purposes and thus fill a long need in being able to show exactly what an orchard may do with proper scientific care and treatment.

ing.

COLCHESTER

Samuel Levine's New Veranda Cause of Special Town Meeting-Union Thanksgiving Service to Be Held at Episcopal Church.

A special town meeting was held in Grundy hall Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to see if the town would lease a small strip of land on Mill street to Samuel Levine. Mr. Levine has built a new house on the lot known as the rubber office lot, which he recently purchased. It was built on the cellar of the old icehouse, and the front of the house is on the street line. Mr. Levine has built a piazza which extends out on the highway. The matter was brought before the board of selectmen for consideration, but as there is no sidewalk on that side of the street at present they had no authority on the same. It was then brought before the selectmen who upon a petition called the meeting. If the borough sees fit to build a walk on that side of the street, of which there has been some talk, Mr. Levine would be obliged to take the veranda away, as it would interfere with building the walk. The question has been brought up whether the town has a right to allow the highway to be used for private purposes. The meeting called out a large crowd.

Miss Alice Slater of Danbury is at her home on Lebanon avenue for a short vacation.

Norwich Preacher Heard.

Rev. Charles A. Northrop of Norwich Town preached at the morning service at the Congregational church Sunday. The Christian Endeavor society met in the chapel at 6 o'clock.
